FAMILY VINEYARDS

2007 Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon

Showing aromas of dark fruit, oak and earthy characters, this wine is a great example of what happens when patience is practiced in winemaking. The extended barrel and bottle aging has allowed a more mature wine to develop. Instead of rough, hard tannins, there is a maturity to the mouth-feel, creating a velvety texture. That structure is the backbone and carries the long lasting flavors of blackberries, spice, cassis, dark chocolate and leather. The tannins and acidity create a long finish with ending hints of a berry cordial or ripe fruit syrup.
